2.15.3 USE

A. Internal College Use

Internal use of college-supported or commissioned inventions or materials will be without charge to the college. The college personnel involved in the production of college-supported materials should have his/her contribution explicitly recognized and noted by the user.

B. External Use

External use for college-supported materials will be subject to the following conditions:

1. The college may distribute college-supported materials on a temporary loan basis to other non-profit organizations, educational institutions or consortia as part of any reciprocal exchange agreements.

2. College-commissioned materials may be distributed or used externally at the discretion of the college.

Before any use if made of college-supported materials, the college personnel and producer will certify in writing to the Dean of Career and Instructional Services that to the best of his/her knowledge the materials do not infringe on any existing copyright, legal or privacy rights of others.
