Questions Received:

1. Paper- Due to the current supply chain crisis, no sample can be sent until paper is ordered. Mill prices are changing daily. You stated you will not pay for overruns. Are there any concessions regarding this matter?
The Marketing & Creative Services Department prefers hard copy proofs, but will certainly work with awarded vendors to waive the request for initial paper/material samples due to supply chain issues. In addition, the college typically requests a small overrun with the exact cost built into the quote. The college, however, cannot be responsible for overruns due to vendor error.
